Dearly loved Friends,

The National Spiritual Assembly is grieved to share with you the attached message received today from the Universal House of Justice, announcing the passing of their “much-loved, much-admired” former colleague, Douglas Martin. The message is available as a PDF here.

The Universal House of Justice has called upon the “friends in every community...to honour his memory by convening memorials.” Details of further gatherings to remember Douglas Martin will be announced in due course.

With loving Bahá'í greetings,

Patrick O'Mara,
Secretary
